

Workshop of the ERIA Research for Cleaner Use of Coal in ASEAN and East Asia Region

HOST : The Institute of Energy Economics, JAPAN

SUPPORT : Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA)

Coal is particularly highly used as an energy resource in East Asia, and the demand for coal is predicted to continue growing in the future. Accordingly, the introduction of Clean Coal Technology (CCT) will be an effective method for limiting the expected large increase in demand for coal in East Asia.

To spread CCT throughout East Asian countries, we, International Conference on Clean Coal Technology in ERIA Region, seek to gain understanding of the diversity of coal demand in each country, deepen mutual understanding between countries and to ensure the best practices of policies are made widely available.

We are holding this Workshop to deepen understanding CCT in ASEAN and East Asia region.
